ANNUAL REPORT

JULY 1, 2017 –
JUNE 30, 2018

Mission: To enrich our community,
both culturally and economically,
by presenting, promoting and supporting a wide variety of arts opportunities for our residents,
visitors and artists.

Dear Friends,

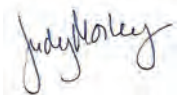

I am honored to have my first official message as Executive Director be to present the report of this past year, which was the crowning achievement in Sandy Oxx's long career as the Executive Director of the Carroll County Arts Council. Sandy left a thriving organization, characterized by fun, successful events that build strong community ties. Those events will continue to be integral parts of life here at the Carroll Arts Center.

The last year saw many changes besides Sandy's departure. We completed our transition to the PatronManager database, renovated the Tevis Gallery, held 2 children's theater productions, celebrated the 20th Anniversary of the Festival of Wreaths, and once again experienced marshmallow madness with the PEEPSHOW. All of this happened against the backdrop of a national search for a new Executive Director and staff reorganization. The fact that things continued to run smoothly is a testament to the professionalism of the board and staff.

I have been asked repeatedly what I'm going to change as the new Executive Director. For now, the answer is, "not much." We have updated a few policies and solidified some internal procedures, but I see no reason to make substantive changes to a beloved organization that so successfully fulfills its mission.

As always, we couldn't have made it through this year of transition without the ongoing support of you, our wonderful members! As we look optimistically to the future, we value more than ever your participation as volunteers, board members, donors, sponsors and members. You are the lifeblood of the Carroll County Arts Council, and we appreciate you! Take a bow!

Sincerely,
Judy Morley, Ph.D.

Dear Friends,

Planning, transition, and change have been the working concepts for our Board of Directors over the past year.

When Sandy Oxx announced her retirement, we formed a Search Committee and worked long hours to find the right candidate to succeed Sandy and lead the Arts Council into the future.

Simultaneously, the board coordinated tributes to an executive director whose 21-year tenure included signature, quirky and profitable events that are now part of the Arts Council's legacy.

Judy Morley, a lifelong resident of Denver, Colorado, was the committee's unanimous choice for Sandy's successor. In addition to a PhD in history and extensive experience with business and nonprofit organizations, Judy brings expertise in executive leadership, fund raising, and community partnerships to the CCAC. She is excited to get to know our area, build relationships in the community, and help promote the arts. If you have not yet met Judy, please stop by and introduce yourself.

The Arts Council's dedicated staff members offered professionalism and support throughout this transition; as a result of their work and Judy's strengths, the Arts Center remains a welcoming place for all.

We remain dedicated to exploring new ways to expand arts opportunities and further our mission in Carroll County. I am confident the community and CCAC supporters will continue to enjoy engaging, year-round concerts, movies, exhibits, and classes, as well as our annual favorites like the Festival of Wreaths, Foreign Film Festival, Art in the Park, and PEEPSHOW.

As we look forward, we will often be grateful for Sandy Oxx's legacy. To advance her personal wish that the Carroll County Arts Council continue to thrive and offer multiple arts opportunities for years to come, the board established The Sandy Oxx Legacy Fund.

Please join me in making a donation.

Raise the curtains to new chapters for the arts in Carroll County. I hope to see you at a show soon.

Sincerely,
Anne Blue

EXHIBITS

As always, our three galleries were full of noteworthy exhibits. Some of the highlights were "The Art of the Story," where local artists exhibited how illustrations and stories come together. The 15th Annual Members Show was a crowd favorite, as was the Gallery of Gifts, our indoor holiday art sale. We featured Youth Art Month, as well as "Metrics," an exhibit of abstract art from Baltimore artists. The Carroll County Artists' Guild took us "On the Road" with an artistic tour of local and exotic places through their eyes, and chuckled at "There's a Monster in My (Thrift Store) Masterpiece," a collection of whimsical interpretations inspired by our yART Sale.

Art in the Park June 2, 2018

Art in the Park has been an Arts Council tradition for more than 40 years. This year 115 local artists, makers, and musicians participated.

A NEW LOOK

Our galleries were beautifully refurbished with a generous bequest from the Estate of Ruth Gray.

We repainted both galleries, replaced the flooring of the Tevis Gallery, updated and expanded our picture hanging and display system, and added additional lighting fixtures. Work was finished in time for our 16th Annual Members' Show in 2018 and the exhibits look better than ever.

We are deeply grateful to Ruth and her husband, Lloyd Helt, for their extraordinary support of the Carroll County Arts Council and our artists.

FOR THE KIDS

Summers at CCAC bring out the campers! During our 2 weeks of art camps, the building hums with creative energy generated by our budding artists. There's never a dull moment as the approximately 75 children attended the arts camps to create their personal masterpieces.

2017-2018 HIGHLIGHTS THEATRE

CONCERTS AND PERFORMANCES

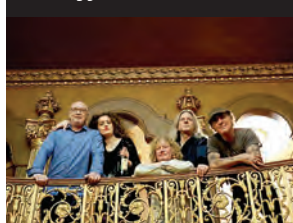

We had a wide variety of live performances last year, from the debut of Bailes de Mi Tierra, a talented dance troupe who serve as ambassadors to the Latino Community, to the Teelin Irish Dance Company and the ever-popular Barleyjuice, who made a return St. Patrick's Day appearance at the Arts Center. We also hosted tribute performances to John Denver and The Beatles. Additionally, patrons enjoyed "A Christmas Carol," "Alice in Wonderland," and "Westminster's Got Talent."

CCAC produced "Junie B Jones" July 13th – 22nd, 2017. This production was open to all ages, featured 13 actors, and was performed for 553 audience members at CCAC in addition to 2 performances at the Maryland Ensemble Theater in Frederick.

PUBLIC ART PROJECTS

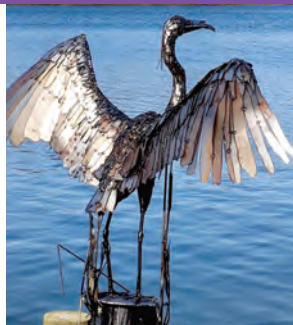

"Sprouts" by Thomas Sterner

In conjunction with the City of Westminster, we applied to the Maryland State Arts Council for a Public Art Across Maryland grant. The winner of the formal "Call for Artists" was this beautiful piece by Thomas Sterner. It will be installed in front of the city's newly-purchased building in the spring of 2019.

"Barn Quilt Homage" by Charlie Maiorana

Originally a contestant for the Public Art Across Maryland grant, this sculpture by Charlie Maiorana was commissioned by Carroll County Tourism, which installed two versions of it, one in front of the Carroll County Farm Museum and the other in front of the County's Tourism Office.

"The Great Blue Heron" by Virginia Sperry

Partnering with the Carroll County Department of Recreation and Parks, CCAC commissioned a permanent piece of outdoor sculpture installed at Piney Run Park in Sykesville. Unveiled in March, "The Great Blue Heron," is a welded steel sculpture by Sykesville artist Virginia Sperry.

2017-2018 BUDGET

The Fiscal Year 2017-2018 was another strong year for the Carroll County Arts Council. Once again, our revenue exceeded expenses. Memberships, ticket sales, and fundraising events remained our top sources of revenue. The Board of Directors adopted a new Investment Policy, which will guide our long-term financial strategies. Overall, we are financially sound and poised for growth.
